[1] NOTE.—Roundtable sessions run concurrently.

The Friday afternoon and Saturday morning sessions will be roundtable conferences. It is hoped that persons attending these meetings will attend them in anticipation of wide general discussion and will be prepared, themselves, to participate in the discussion. The people on these programs, except the one on Public Personnel Research and Development, have been asked to prepare summaries of their papers which may be mimeographed and distributed in advance of the conferences to those who are interested. It will then be possible for members attending the conference to prepare themselves for careful discussion of the methods and conclusions of the program members. Members interested in seeing these papers should advise Prof. D. Clark Hyde, Secretary, at the University of Virginia.
